PRESS RELEASE

Over £500 raised for St Barnabas

On Saturday 13th February West Worthing Tennis and Squash Club (WWC) hosted a charity quiz night in aid of St Barnabas. The night was a great success with around 80 people turning out to support the cause and raising over £500.

The evening began with happy hour in the club's well stocked bar, which many took advantage of. One of the club's social members, David Lutwyche, was delegated quiz master; as an ex-headmaster he delivered the quiz sporting his old gown and cane much to the amusement of those in attendance. The quiz began at 8pm and after the first few taxing rounds the teams stopped for dinner. The club's associate catering company Gourmet Platters served copious delicious lasagne and vegetarian alternative; not wanting to cause waste many people tucked into second portions. After dining the quiz resumed followed by the key feature of the night the raffle. The top prize of a home delivered three course meal for four was won by Lisa Fuller-Love who will be shortly be enjoying the culinary skills of Gourmet Platters. One of Worthing's leading hair and beauty salon Richard John kindly donated a £45 facial voucher which many people were after. Other local companies as the South Coast Coffee Company, Hennings wine merchant and Fullers brewery were all very generous in donating their prizes. WWC staff also gave their full support. Professional squash coach Laura Wright donated a half hour lesson and head tennis pro Jonathon Pocock gave a tennis racket from his onsite sports shop. Following the raffle the last round of the quiz was fought out with Late Again snatching the title and winning £50. The night's activities concluded with stand up bingo where the winner won £40.

WWC would like to say a big thank you to all those that turned out to support the event and all the generous companies for their donations. Overall the event raised £500 and a further £100 was donated by Classic Collection Holidays. The quiz night was the first of a series of bi-monthly fundraising events.
